The Messenger

The First Baptist Church of Haddonfield

Looking forward...

As I write this month's Messenger before the due date of May 15th, I am looking ahead to what may be passed as you read it. For one thing, I am looking forward to the "Call to Prayer in Our Times," held Friday May 20th. Reading the signs of our times, I am not alone in hearing concerns for our nation and our families. So as I spoke with fourteen pastors in our area, including the Haddonfield Council of Churches, I found unanimous concern. Violence, racism, mass murders even in churches and schools, antagonism in government, abortions rates, decline in church attendance, weakening in faith in Christ, and God being pushed to the edges of our culture, give cause for alarm. I for one believe we need to turn back to God. The way to begin is by calling people to prayer. And so we have the "Call to Prayer in Our Times," gathering church folk and the general public at the Haddonfield Middle School auditorium. There will be testimony, prayers led by local pastors and offered by those in attendance, as well as hymns and praise songs to lift our spirits. I will be looking forward to hearing about your experiences at the prayer gathering.

A CALL TO PRAYER IN OUR TIMES

I am also looking forward to a mission trip to Rwanda, sponsored by the American Baptist Churches of New Jersey as well as The First Baptist Church of Haddonfield. We will pray, preach, baptize and visit our 10 village churches who work in cooperation with Seira Rwanda Baptist Churches, our partner organization. One of our goals is to visit the women's sewing cooperative who, because of your generosity through pledged mission support, support from ABCNJ and the Haddonfield Rotary have established small business initiatives to provide income for the widows and families who suffer poverty. The women also receive training in literacy, bookkeeping, business skills and instruction in sewing. The school uniforms they make provide a sustainable source of income that they did not have before.

Finally, I am looking to the teacher and Christian Education Board meeting June 26th. The Board, myself, teachers and the Executive Board have supported the concept of not having Vacation Bible School this Summer. Our past years have been successes; however, very little growth in our congregation as a result, even through various efforts have been made. The reality is that almost all of the children are members of churches already, and we have several VBS programs in Haddonfield. So, where do we go from here? We have decided to place our efforts and creativity into a "Sunday Enrichment" that will create a richer Sunday School experience beginning Sunday, September 11th. Mailings have gone out to all our former participants, and children of the area will be invited to join our Sunday Enrichment program by personal invitation and publicity.

Someone once said, "Success is a moving target." We will continue to serve our congregation, community and mission in new and effective ways. Keep our people and ministries in prayer.

Blessings,

Pastor Michael

RWANDA MISSION TRIP

Pastor Michael will be on mission in Rwanda May 26—June 2, 2016, where he will be visiting 10 village churches and the women's sewing cooperative. Pastor Michael will be preaching, praying and listening. Please keep the mission team in your prayers.

In Pastor Michael's absence, we are blessed to have Rev. Dr. Elmo Familiaran preaching on May 29 and Rev. Miriam Méndez on June 5. Pastor Michael will be taking a well-deserved vacation following his Rwanda trip, and will return to preach on June 12.

Rev. Eric Hoheisel of Oaklyn Baptist Church (856-854-8555) and Rev. Santilli (609-234-1158) will be on call while Pastor is away.

Rev. Méndez serves on the Board of Directors of the American Baptist Home Mission Societies and on the American Baptist Women in Ministry Advisory Team. She is also currently working on her Doctor of Ministry on Leadership and Global Perspectives at George Fox Evangelical Seminary. Yet, what thrills Miriam's heart is being the mother of two beautiful and courageous young adults, the daughter of compassionate and unshakable parents and the sister of two wonderful and steadfast sisters!

Rev. Familiaran served as a community and rural health nurse in the Philippines before moving to the United States. He was ordained in 1984 by North Shore Baptist Church in Chicago, where he served a total of nine years as part of multicultural pastoral staff team that served 4 language groups—Japanese, Chinese, Hispanic, and English speaking. He has served as hospital chaplain at Alexian Brothers Medical Center in Elk Grove, Illinois. In 1990, he joined the Volunteer Activities/Church Relations department of the American Bible Society in New York City as the eastern region field staff until the sprain of 1997. He was called by International Ministries, ABCUSA in July 1997, where he served as director for Missionary Recruitment until December 2003. He joined the staff of the American Baptist Churches of New Jersey in 2004, where he serves to the present day. He returned to the Philippines in 1980, after his first year of seminary, to marry Maria Fe Magallanes. Elmo and Maria Fe live in Florence, New Jersey. They have two children: Gabriel, born in 1986 and Maria Elsie, born in 1987; and a granddaughter, Amelia, born in 2012.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION NEWS...

SHARE YOUR GOD-GIVEN TALENTS/GIFTS DURING THE SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL TIME

This Summer the children in our Sunday School will learn about Sharing Talents for the Lord from members of our congregation.

You are invited to share with the children how you use your God-given talents/gifts in your home, church, work, neighborhood, and wider community/world. Help the children to see the opportunities they may have to share their love of Christ with the world around them today, tomorrow and in the future.

Pray about what you can share with the children.

Please contact Jane Brick at 856-428-5389 or Marilyn Nutt at 856-845-8615 if you are interested or have questions.

We are also going to attempt a little science and music. This new program will need your prayer and support!

On Sunday, June 12, we will be honoring and celebrating the youth of First Baptist Church. You are invited to attend church and stay for coffee hour on this day to celebrate our youth.
